GENERAL ELECTRICAL NOTES:

1. All normal circuits in the area shall be fed from panel 'RP-S2' unless otherwise noted.

2. Receptacles in classrooms shall be installed within FSR-PWB-100.

3. Receptacles to be stacked vertically.

4. Installation requirements.

5. Coordinate all floor box locations with plans and elevations prior to rough-ins.

6. All future electrical services shall be coordinated with the architectural services.

7. All future electrical services shall be coordinated with the structural consultant.

8. All future electrical services shall be coordinated with the mechanical consultant.

9. All future electrical services shall be coordinated with the architectural services.

10. All future electrical services shall be coordinated with the structural consultant.

11. All future electrical services shall be coordinated with the mechanical consultant.

12. All future electrical services shall be coordinated with the architectural services.

13. All future electrical services shall be coordinated with the structural consultant.

14. All future electrical services shall be coordinated with the mechanical consultant.

15. All future electrical services shall be coordinated with the architectural services.

16. All future electrical services shall be coordinated with the structural consultant.

17. All future electrical services shall be coordinated with the mechanical consultant.

18. All future electrical services shall be coordinated with the architectural services.